

2004 NURSING HOME WATCH LIST BY STATE
TEMPORARILY WITHDRAWN

Consumers Union (CU), the publisher of ConsumerReports.org, has learned that the 2004 Nursing Home Watch List, previously published at www.consumerhealthchoices.org, www.consumersunion.org, and www.consumerreports.org, may be based on incomplete data, due to processing problems encountered by its external project consultant.

Consequently, CU is temporarily withdrawing the 2004 Watch List, pending further review. Until this review is completed and any necessary revisions are made, the 2004 Nursing Home Watch List should not be used in choosing a facility. Instead, please refer to the general advice available at “Shopping for a Nursing Home.”

We sincerely regret any inconvenience that results from this situation.
