

You Mean We Don't Have A
National Financial Privacy Law?

That's Not Fair Credit!

FACT: Neither the Fair Credit Reporting Act nor the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act give consumers the right to control the sharing of confidential account experience and transaction information with either affiliates or even with most third party companies, as long as they have joint marketing relationships.

No opt-in, no opt-out. No privacy rights.

Support the Feinstein-Boxer
Amendment To S 1753.
Because It's About Privacy,
Not Just About Credit.

Consumers Need A Strong Privacy Standard.
*ACLU, Consumer Federation of America,
Consumers Union, National Association of Consumer
Advocates, National Community Reinvestment Coalition,
Privacy Times, U.S. PIRG*