

Reporting of hospital infection rates

SUMMARY OF STATE ACTIVITY

- 26 states have laws requiring public reporting of infection rates: AL, CA, CO, CT, DE, FL, IL, MD, MA, MN, MO, NJ, NY, NH, OH, OK, OR, PA, RI, SC, TN, TX, VA, VT, WA, WV.
- 3 states have laws requiring confidential reporting ((NE, NV) or voluntary reporting of infection rates (AR).
- WY, MT, ND are the only states that have not considered hospital infection legislation.

For more information about state disclosure laws:

http://cu.convio.net/hospital_infection_disclosure_laws and www.stophospitalinfections.org/learn.html.

Prepared by Consumer Union; Stop Hospital Infections; 506 W. 14th St., Ste. A., Austin, TX, 78701; 512-477-4431.